be proved, or rendered probable, that the religion prevailing in any European country, taken apart from other causes, influences at all the number of illegitimate births. Religious partisans should therefore be very cautious before they endeavor to make capital for their own faith out of the weaknesses and sins, which Hans and the Ducks.

Everybody about Timbuctoo, up in Yuba county, knows Hans Himeltansen. or, he is usually called,
"Dutch John," as a good-hearted, jovial fellow, once well off, but now reduced to the position of a F.ume Guard.

Hans goes out hunting once in a while. He went after ducks not long since. You can't get him to go after them again. The reason is this: Some of the boys played him a trick. They got a couple of wooden decoy ducks, and fastened them with a string in the edge of some bushes in a little pond near the pond, where they could be seen as the wind wafted them out the length of the string.

Hans was told that a couple of wild ducks were in the pond, and he hurried to his quarters he got his gun, loaded it heavily, and crept down within range of the ducks.

Taking good aim, he fired, and the ducks were sent with a rush back into the bushes by the shot.

Hans thought, of course, he killed them, but stopped to load, in case they were only wounded. Meantime the wind, blowing through the bushes, prettily sharp, blew them out on the water to the length of the string again.

"Der tyfahl I shotted dem tooks
once?" said Hans, in astonishment.
"Now dey schwims out like as dey were never shot with a gun, not all!
I makes 'em hell schnell dis time!"

And again took a liberate aim and let fly.

The force of the shot instantly drove the ducks in out of sight, and Hans dropped his gun to go after them. But, before he had got twenty yards he saw to his astonishment that the ducks were swimming out as before unharmed.

He halted, in half wonder, half terror.

"Mien cot!" he muttered. "Two time I shotted dem tooks! and two times dey come out again just as before. I tink dey is de tyvel's own tooks! I tries again--zee if I tint!"

And again, with a double load of both powder and shot in his gun, Hans drew for the ducks. He fired, and end over end turned with the recoil. When he got up not a duck was in sight.

"I shot 'em all to pieces dat time!
he cried, as he rubbed his lame shoulder.

Just then out floated the ducks
again.

"Mien cot in himmels! Tey is ter tyvel's tooks!" groaned Hans--

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, KY.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1870.

LOCAL MATTER.

Twice a Year.

I call upon my customers to settle Twice a Year, and shall expect all to come forward by the 1st of February, and do so. I owe money and it has to be paid, in Bank when due. A word to the wise is sufficient.

R. C. WHEAT.

January 20, 1870-31.

Building Lot for Sale.

Mr. L. Vanhook has a very desirable Building Lot, which he wishes to sell. See advertisement in today's paper.

Residence for Sale or Rent.

I have a desirable residence, splendidly located, which I desire to sell or rent. For particulars call on H. C. NEBEL. Jan. 27, 1870-tf.

Catsup.

We are indebted to our excellent friend P. Phillips, of this county for several Bottles of his splendid Tomato Catsup. We hope he may live forever and make catsup for the world.

Quarterly Court.

Began in this city last Monday. Judge Curry, on the bench, and business quite brisk with the legal fraternity.

Personal.

Joseph Patterson, of Missouri, is in Harrison visiting his friends and relatives.

"Some Money."

The people of Kokomo, Indiana, charge $200 for a Saloon license for one year. The people of Cynthiana charge for the same thing $250—and Jno. Latta, charges 15 cents for an extra drink of "Tom and Jerry."

Brought Home.

The remains of Mr. O. Edwards, was brought from Missouri, last Friday, to be interred in Bourbon county. He died very suddenly last Thursday. He was formerly a resident of Bourbon county.

Religious.

The meeting which was in progress in the Methodist Church at this place, has closed with seventy-five additions. Among them Caleb Walton, Sr., Samuel January, Henry Williams, and others. We understand that the congregation contemplate building a new house of worship.

Elder John I. Rogers, has returned from Elizaville, where he has been holding a protracted meeting. There were 32 additions to church.

Groceries.

Green Remington and Richard Remington have, as we stated last week, purchased the Grocery establishment of H. Magee & Son, on Pike Street, and now have an extra assortment of Fresh Groceries on hand, which they say they will sell cheap for cash.

Nobody Hurt.

The young man named Rohback, who was shot by young Lunn, some two weeks since is recovering, and it is said will get well.

The black boy Conrad, who shot himself while stealing chickens, is getting well. We understand that he has a desperate aversion for chicken meat.

Sale of a Thoroughbred Bull.

We are pleased to learn that our traders in stock continue active. Jacob Renaker, Jr., of this county, has sold to some parties in Michigan, a Thoroughbred Durham Bull, well and favorably known in this county by the name of "Uncle Sam." He was bred and raised by Jerry Duncan, of Bourbon county, and brought to this county by J. Levi and Noah Patterson, and is one of the finest of his kind in this State. He is the half brother of the fine cow, which was shown and took a premium at our last Fair, known as "Lou Ann," the property of Col. Ware, of Bourbon county.

Personal.

Esie and Bias Smith, sons of Warren Smith, of this county, are wonders in acquiring knowledge. The former, not yet seven years old, reads well in the Fourth Reader, is master of Ray's Arithmetic, Second Book, knows the Multiplication Table, can spell nearly every word in the Elementary Spelling Book, and can write his name. The latter can read in the Third Reader or in a newspaper with astonishing exactness, and is considerably advanced in the Primary branches.

"Cynthiana News!"

Now is the time to subscribe to the "News"—$2 a year in advance.

Social Hop.

The Social Hop that was to be given by the Members of the St. Patrick's Coronet Band, on February 22, has been changed to the 21 of February. All the ladies that have not received invitations through mail, are respectfully invited to attend.

Gray Hair's.

If any of our readers are prematurely gray, or are troubled with falling of the hair, dandruff or itching of the scalp, they have only to use Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, and their trouble will soon be over. The preparation is not only a restorer of gray hair, but one of the most elegant hair dressings we have ever seen. It also, by softening and invigorating the hair, prevents premature baldness, and in many cases restores hair to bald heads.

For sale at Renaker's Drug Store, Cynthiana, Ky.

A drove of fine Kentucky hogs.

sold in Camden, S. C., the other day, at 12 1/2 cents.

Suicide.

On Saturday morning last, Mrs. Wignition, was found drowned in her cistern, near her residence in Falmouth, Pendleton county. We know nothing of the cause of this rash act, but it is believed to have been brought about by Domestic disturbance.

Cleaned Up.

Yesterday the Streets were cleaned up, and presented a respectable appearance. Dick Hedges is Marshal of the City.

A Good Thing.

We understand that an ordinance has passed the Council, making it a fine of $50, for any person to leave a grave open at the old Cemetery. And the ordinance selling and dismantling the old vault has been repealed.

Died.

Harrison Magee, an old and respected citizen, died at his residence near this city, Wednesday at 1 o'clock.

The Weather.

At this point is lovely. The Sun shown bright all day yesterday.

Court.

The Kenton County Court has adjourned until next month. But little business was transacted during the term.

Tree Trees.

It is said considerable damage was done to the fruit trees in the vicinity of Covington, on Monday night last. We have nothing from this section in regard to whether any damage was done or not.

River.

The river has subsided, and no damage done; considerable drift came down, and the negroes rejoiced. For by that means they got considerable wood.

DIED.

In this county, on the 21st of January, 1870, Nannie E. Munson, daughter of Moss and Susan Munson, aged 22 years.

Earth was too sad and dark for her bright pure spirit, and she who gathered the lamb in his bosom, sent Angels to bear her home. Here she suffered and died, but there she reigns in triumph. What a happy change from a world of sorrow and affliction, to that land where she will be no more. Kind friends placed her body in the grave, while loving parents, friends and neighbors, gathered to the funeral, and the Nation's awake from the long sleep of death, they may meet the loved one in the presence of their great Redeemer, where they shall never be separated. Her society, but share with her an endearing glory. J. J. MESSON.

pensia in the known World.

Dr. Wisnart's Great American Dyspepsia

Pills and Powders. These are positive and infallible cure for dyspepsia in its most aggravated form, and no matter of how long standing.

They penetrate the secret abode of this terrible disease, and exterminate it, root and branch, forever.

They relieve more agony and silent suffering than tongue can tell.

They are useful for curing the most desperate and hopeless cases, when every known means fail to afford relief.

No form of dyspepsia can resist their penetrating power.

DR. WISNART'S

PINK TREE TAR CORDIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pink Tree,

obtained by a unique process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained. It invigorates

the digestive organs and restores the appete. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which accompanies the disease. It dissolves the mucous or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs. Its healing property is such that it is offered to the afflicted with positive assurance of its power to cure

the following diseases, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of consumption of the lungs, Cough, Sore

Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Liver

Complaint, Blind and Bleeding

Piles, Asthma, Whooping

Cough, Diphtheria, &c.
